DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This handsome, late 19th century brick house is located on a hill above the Baltimore Washington Parkway at Nursery Road. The structure is 2 1/2 stories high, having a mansard roof. It is one room deep and has a center entrance and hall. The entrance, on the east elevation is covered by a one story, open porch. The porch is supported on elaborate turned columns and has a roof deck, surrounded by a rail and scrollcut slats. scroll-cut

A two story A-roofed wing extends from the west side (back) of the house. A new, one story addition has been made to the south-west corner between the wing and the house. The house is in excellent condition and does not appear to have been altered significantly. The mansard roof is a unique feature of the house.

To the south of the house are several barns and a brick meat house. The barns are sheathed in board and batten siding and have fieldstone foundations. They are in excellent condition. The meat-house has a square plan with the entrance on the east side. It has a hip-roof topped with a wooden finial.
